A spider . . . it spins a cocoon to nest its eggs, and a web to entangle its prey.

A spider web . . . a silken design which allows a spider to rest while it anticipates new opportunities.

EVERETT LIBRARY QUEENS COLLEGE
CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA

Queens College . . . like the spider is a cocoon and a web at one time.

Queens, like the spider, is comprised of many arms which embody a multitude of individuals with a vast range of gifts and talents, a habitat of friendliness and never ceasing growth, an array of corridors encompassing new modes of learning.

Queens, like a cocoon, is a place of warmth and love between friends, of communication and cooperation.

Queens, like a web, is a resting place for each girl as she aspires new hopes and dreams for the future, as she searches for a better existence through the acquiring of knowledge.

In recognition for his service to Queens, the seniors of 1977 dedicate this edition of the Coronet to Mr. Palmer.

BOAR'S HEAD

The annual Boar's Head dinner is a Queens College tradition. Its origins are in a legend passed down from Queens College at Oxford. Many years ago, a student there saved his life by choking a wild boar with a book. Queens College in Charlotte has created its own formal adaptation of the legend, complete with the presentation of the Boar's Head.

MORAVIAN LOVE FEAST

The Moravian Love Feast is a very special part of the Christmas Season. It is at this time that the student body and community gather together to share in feasting and fellowship. The tradition carries with it a feeling of warmth and light through the burning of candles. This tradition is truly a love feast.

YULE LOG

The burning of the Yule Log is one of the warmest of Queens' Christmas traditions. Students gather on the school grounds to make a wish on a holly sprig which is thrown into a roaring bonfire. The air is then filled with the sounds of Christmas as students sing carols around the fire.
